

Last November the famous aviation photographer Katsuhiko Tokunaga visited Greece and especially Hellenic Air Force Araxos AB to take photos from the new 335 Squadron F-16 Blk52+ Advanced. That event took place in order to accompany the text of Code One magazine by Eric Hehs (see full article here). Airforce.gr has got the honor to officially present some of the best photos he got from F-16 Blk52+ Advanced and A-7E Corsair too that still fly with 336 Squadron Olympos from Araxos AB. We would like to thank 116 CW Commander, 335 Squadron Commander, especially the 116 CW Security Office and of course Mr. Tokunaga himself for the trust and cooperation.

All set of other 20 photos soon will be presented via airforce.gr news section. Stay tuned for Vol2

Read previous article about photo session during last November here or just click on the image above.